

ADVENT HEALTH PARTNERS

Medical Necessity Denial Recovery Service

Inpatient/Outpatient Denial Management | Clinical Expertise | Analytics & Reporting

Advent Health Partners has recovered over $148 million from medical necessity denial placements and more than $90 million for our unique “digital extension” service delivery model deployed into several large health systems.

Clinical resources that specialize in writing authoritative claims appeals—specifically those for medical necessity claims—are challenging to obtain and retain. At Advent Health Partners, we specialize in appealing medical necessity denials. Partnering with our team enables your clinical team to maintain an ideal nurse-to-patient ratio and uphold your commitment to high-quality patient care. Our experts, who have 20+ years of clinical experience and represent over 15 healthcare specialties, can integrate seamlessly into your team to determine appeal viability of placed claims, craft quality appeals letters, and follow up to recovery.

Why Use Advent as a Medical Necessity Partner?

Compelling Appeals

Our clinical team crafts compelling appeal packets and fields follow-ups to combat medical necessity denials.

Reporting Packages

Advent provides your team with an individualized reporting package with detailed information on claim resolution, key metrics, and root cause analysis.

Clinical Expertise

Our dedicated team of RNs has experience in several specialized fields, ensuring we can provide expert and comprehensive service to fill in any gaps within your organization based on your unique needs.

Proprietary Appeal/Claim Technology

Our Apello technology platform, coupled with our team's clinical and regulatory expertise, determines the viability of claims, crafts quality and consistent appeals, and is Turn-Key as we follow-up for revenue recovery.
